C T Jackson

Prof A Gray

Dear Sir.

My daughter Alice desires to present the accompanying California lily bulb to you, since she thinks it would be more likely to thrive in your hands than in hers.

I am afraid it may be dead, but you can try & see what will come of it

Respectfully
Yours &c &c

Charles T. Jackson.

Boston March 4th 1866